Our mission is to save tropical plant diversity by exploring, explaining & conserving the world of tropical plants; fundamental to this task is inspiring a greater knowledge and love for plants and gardening so that all can enjoy the beauty and bounty of the tropical world.

Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden is supported by contributions from members and friends, and in part by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs, the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, the Miami-Dade County Tourist Development Council, the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners and with the support of the City of Coral Gables.

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

ALL WEEKEND

MANGO AND TROPICAL FRUIT TASTING AND EVALUATIONS SPONSORED BY ECORIFE

Corbin Classroom A, $2 per person

Fairchild selects the finest quality mangos and tropical fruits, ripened to perfection and freshly cut for your tasting. Help us decide which tropical fruit will reign supreme this year. (While supplies last). Sponsored by

MANGOS AND TROPICAL FRUIT DISPLAY

Garden House

Experience the largest mango and tropical fruit collection in the world! Our staggering display offers a beautiful journey through genetic differences within mangos as well as other tropical fruits featured in this year's festival. Learn how fruit colors, shapes and aromas differ from region to region. You are sure to see some very unusual shapes, colors and textures in these unusual tropical fruits from around the globe.

MANGO AND TROPICAL RARE FRUIT TREE SALES

Palmetum

Shop our unparalleled selection of Curator's Choice Mango Trees while supplies last. The Rare Fruit Council International will be selling the rarest fruit trees and plants so you too can have a tropical oasis in your backyard.

FAIRCHILD EDUCATION STATION

Cycad Vista Lawn

Dr. David Fairchild explored the world in search of tasty tropical fruits. Along his journeys, he found the mango. At the Education Station, learn about mango and other fruits brought over by Fairchild through hands-on interactive activities. Face painting, arts and much more.
